

Health and Genetic Warranties

Miller's Luxury Puppy certifies that the puppy you purchased is in sound health at the time of sale to the best of our knowledge and has been given all vaccines and deworming stated on the treatment and vaccination record provided to you. We have done our best to provide you with a healthy puppy. You are responsible for further vaccinations and boosters and also regular deworming. We strongly recommend, but do not require, that your puppy be spayed or neutered. It is your ultimate responsibility to take good care of your puppy and provide adequate food, water, shelter, and veterinarian care. We have bred this puppy based on sound stock. Through proper diet, exercise and quality living conditions, you can play an important role in helping your puppy grow into a healthy adult. Please be aware that as a new puppy owner you share in the responsibility to help prevent hip dysplasia, as it has been proven to be partly hereditary and increasingly environmental.

Two Week Health Warranty

You are responsible to have your puppy examined by a veterinarian within two weeks of the purchase date listed below. Any claims that the puppy is not healthy within the two week warranty period must be backed up by two unaffiliated veterinarians. In the event two unaffiliated veterinarians certify that the puppy has internal parasites or a contagious illness the puppy was vaccinated against, or a health issue of such serious nature that the quality of life of the dog will be shortened or seriously altered, the Miller's Luxury Puppy will reimburse your reasonable and customary veterinary bills related to treatment of the condition up to the purchase price of your puppy. We cannot control the exposure your puppy encounters after the sale and do not guarantee against ticks, fleas, or ear mites. Furthermore, the Miller family offers no warranty against stress induced conditions. Puppies sometimes get stressed when they are adopted and move to their new home. This stress can be brought on due to the move, change in diet, too much handling, not enough quiet time, or not eating properly. Stress can bring on minor health ailments including but not limited to diarrhea, constipation, colds, and hypoglycemia. After-sale exposure and stress related conditions do not warrant reimbursement for treatment. Miller's Luxury Puppy cannot control or guarantee the color or size of the puppy now or as an adult nor can we guarantee breed characteristics.

Two Year Genetic Warranty

Two Year Genetic Warranty If in the second year of your puppy's life a genetic disease is discovered that will greatly shorten the life of or greatly alter the quality of your puppy's life then Miller's Luxury Puppy will reimburse you for veterinary costs related to the treatment of the genetic disease up to the purchase price of the puppy. Alternatively, if you wish, we will replace your puppy or issue a credit for a future puppy. If you choose puppy replacement we will not reimburse any veterinary expenses. The following stipulations must be adhered to in order for a replacement or reimbursement to be made:

1. Buyer must provide to the Miller family official reports from two unaffiliated veterinarians stating that, without a doubt, the puppy has a genetic defect that is life threatening. The reports must be made available along with phone numbers of each veterinarian's office.

2. In the event of the puppy's death, an autopsy must be done by a licensed veterinarian stating the cause of death. The documentation must be forwarded to us along with the phone number of the veterinarian before a determination will be made. Miller's Luxury Puppy reserves the right to confirm the diagnosis of a genetic defect with a veterinarian of our choice.
